WHAT WE REALLY NEED...

This month is a time of transition. Transition from a long and hard winter with its ice and several feet of snow to a spring long awaited and welcome. Let's face it - we really need spring.

We look for signs of an economy coming out of its own winter, blossoming into a time of prosperity, increased opportunity for all, and less economic pressure. We really need spring.

So many nations of the world have been frozen in the tyranny of dictators looking to their own interests, while their people have suffered economically and socially. These people have begun to say 'no' to this icy oppression and have turned their faces toward the light and warmth of their own kind of spring.

We also transition from the austerity and introspection of Lent, the final road to Jerusalem, the last moments with Jesus' disciples, his terrible death, his burial...leading to the glorious Day of Resurrection—Easter!

Each of us has needed liberation in some form or another. Something inside us has wanted to be free from cold thoughts & feelings, ice & snow blocking our path. It is good, at long last, to feel the gentle heat and sunlight of spring. Thanks be to God for the gift of his Son coming to us anew. We really need spring.

COME ENJOY THE RICHNESS OF HOLY WEEK

PALM SUNDAY– APRIL 17 (8 and 10:15) This is a day of irony and dichotomy. At the beginning of the service we welcome this new messiah into Jerusalem with shouts and cheers. By the end of the service we reflect on his betrayal and giving up of his own life for us.

MAUNDY THURSDAY– APRIL 21 (7 pm) This service is all about the Love of our Lord for us. On this day he institutes the Lord's Supper and then is quickly handed over to the authorities. We strip the altar of all adornments at the end of this service. Guest musician, Gus Mercante, will join us to make this service a special time for all.

GOOD FRIDAY– APRIL 22 (7 pm) On this day we make room for silence, for sorrow, for sacrifice, for love. A dramatic reading of the Passion story is a focal point of this service, as well as prayers for all in this fallen world. This is a day that asks for the mercy we all need.

HOLY SATURDAY– APRIL 23 (8pm) This is a special night! On this night we gather to tell the story of our people and God's redemptive acts around the fire in the darkness. We renew our baptismal covenant and celebrate the coming of Easter with bells and singing. Forget other vigils you've been to. Nobody does this service like St. David's!

The last week of Jesus' earthly life are filled with sorrow, injustice, and hatred... but also beauty, love, and grace. He was betrayed, jailed, interrogated, abused, killed... He also spent tender moments with his disciples showing them the way of love by instituting the Lord's Supper, a gift of love from our Lord, and then, finally, giving his life freely for all.

Please consider making time to commemorate this holiest of weeks with your family here at St. David's. Childcare is provided on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. The Great Vigil of Easter is a family service.

HE IS RISEN! HE IS RISEN!

During Lent we have continued our journey so that we might be in right relationship with others and with God. Lent has been a time for us to direct our attention to a loving God as we seek repentance, renewal, and spiritual growth. For many, the season of Lent has been a period of preparation for Easter as we have spent time in personal reflection, contemplation, and renewal.

Thus, we may discover that as we emerge from Lent and Holy Week that we have new eyes with which to view the world. We emerge from darkness into light. “ Good Friday is much more than reliving the passion of Jesus; it is entering into solidarity with the passion of all people of our planet, whether in the past, the present, or the future. In Jesus all human suffering is collected. “
(Henri J.M. Nouwen)

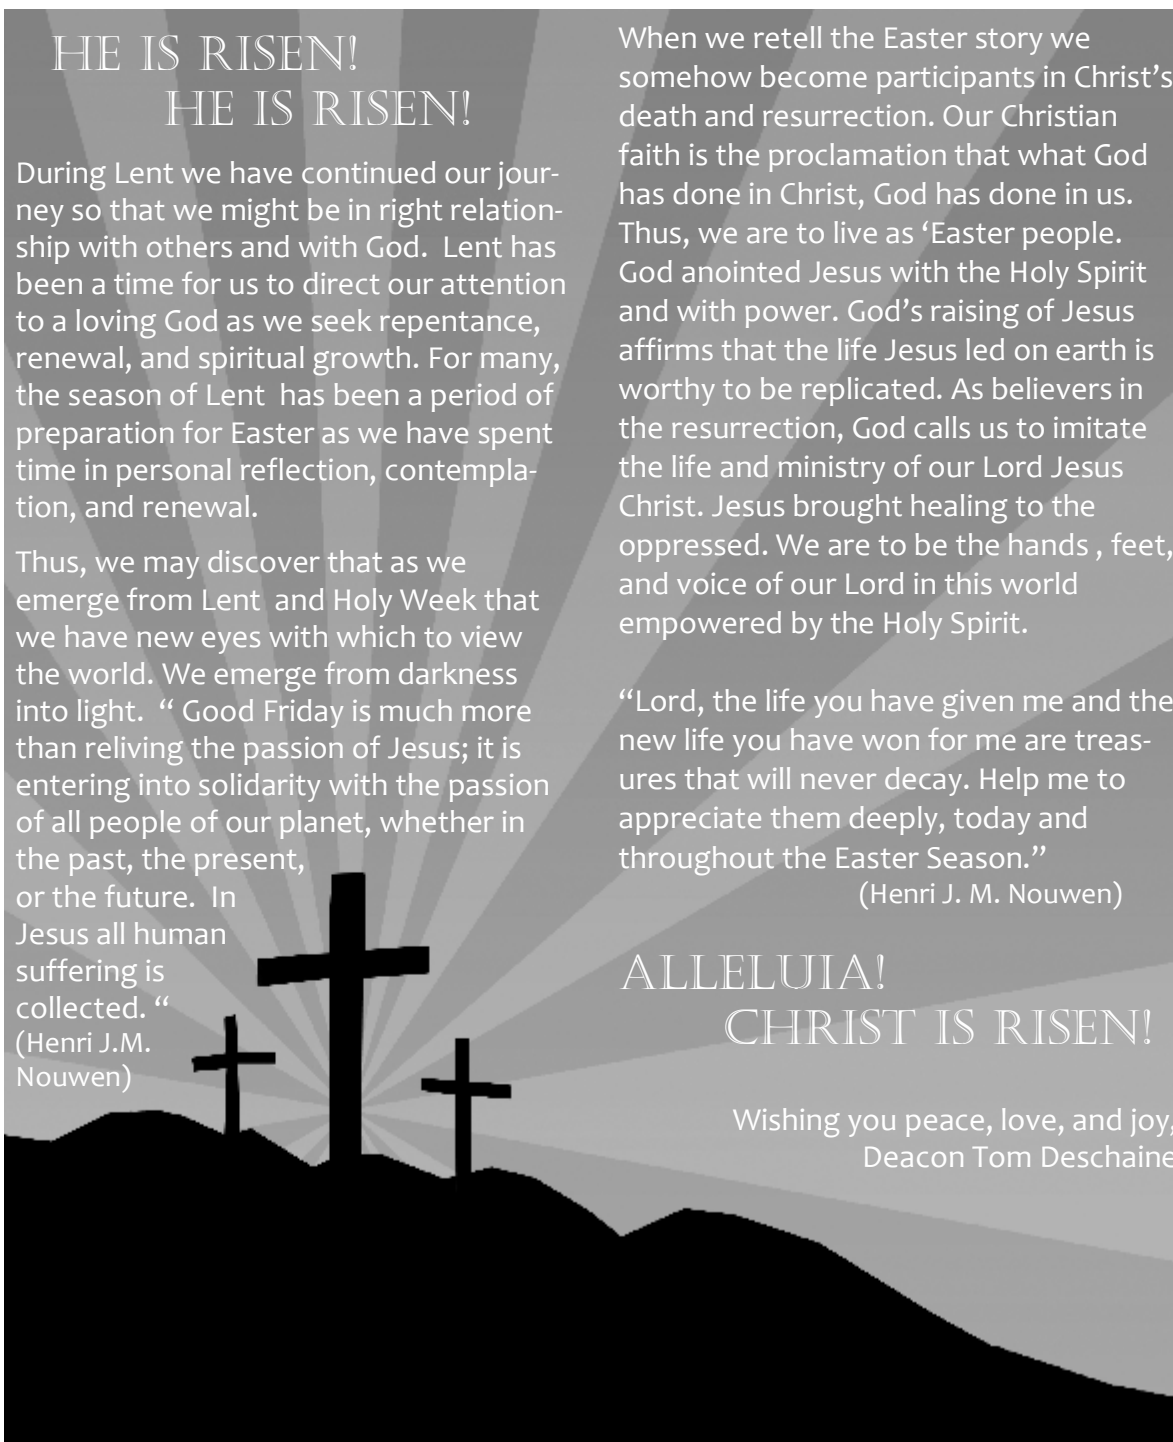

When we retell the Easter story we somehow become participants in Christ’s death and resurrection. Our Christian faith is the proclamation that what God has done in Christ, God has done in us. Thus, we are to live as ‘Easter people. God anointed Jesus with the Holy Spirit and with power. God’s raising of Jesus affirms that the life Jesus led on earth is worthy to be replicated. As believers in the resurrection, God calls us to imitate the life and ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus brought healing to the oppressed. We are to be the hands , feet, and voice of our Lord in this world empowered by the Holy Spirit.

“Lord, the life you have given me and the new life you have won for me are treasures that will never decay. Help me to appreciate them deeply, today and throughout the Easter Season.”

(Henri J. M. Nouwen)

ALLELUIA! CHRIST IS RISEN!

Wishing you peace, love, and joy,
Deacon Tom Deschaine

Holy Women, Holy Men

This is one in a series of articles highlighting some of the newer commemorations in the Episcopal Church's Calendar of Saints.

Pandita Mary Ramabai
Prophetic Witness and Evangelist in India, 1922

Pandita Rambai (1858-1922) faced most of the obstacles a woman could encounter in the India of her lifetime. She was denied access to formal education and was ostracized from society as first an orphan and then a widow. She experienced first-hand the effects of India's rigid caste system that placed discriminatory walls between social and racial groups. Yet she fought back, first as a Hindu, then as a Christian.

Her father was a scholar who taught her both the Sanskrit language and the Vedas, the sources classical Hindu beliefs. An 1876 famine killed most of her family and a few years later a cholera epidemic killed her husband of nineteen months. Acutely aware of the difficulties facing Indian women, Ramabai was increasingly drawn to social work and in 1883 traveled to England where she spent time with the Wantage Sisters, an Anglican religious community near Oxford. She was baptized in 1883 and worked actively in London with a community of nuns whose clientele were former prostitutes. She attended the Cheltenham Ladies College, an institution that favored women's suffrage and instructing young women in the same subjects taught in schools for young men.

Ramabai returned to India in 1889 and founded the Mukti Mission, a home for abandoned widows and orphans of the Brahmin high priestly caste in Mumbai, (formerly Bombay). When India was again struck by famine in 1896, she extended the mission's outreach to include women and orphans of all castes, and gradually added a clinic and vocational training courses. Fluent in several languages, Ramabai translated the Bible into Marathi, a West Indian language. Indians who encountered her gave her the title "Pandita," meaning "the learned one." Ramabai, like Mother Teresa later, worked tirelessly among India's poor, depending on the generosity of others to fund her activities. Her evangelical enthusiasm never waned. "What a blessing this burden does not fall on me. But Christ bears it on his shoulders," she wrote, and "no one but He could transform and uplift the down-trodden womanhood of India and of every land."

WE WELCOME... ...THE LOGULLO'S!

Sometimes our life journey brings us back to where we began. That's what it's been like for Kathleen Logullo (nee' Mickles), who has lived in North Carolina, Florida and California. Having returned to Delaware, Kathleen wanted to be married at St. David's, where she was baptized and confirmed. After conversations and pre-marital counseling with Fr. Brad, she and Christopher Logullo were married this year at St. David's. Now, she says, this is "no longer just my parents' church, it's my church home."

Christopher, who grew up in Delaware, has found St. David's to be "a comfortable place". He likes the atmosphere and thinks "Brad is great." Chris, a U. of D. graduate who completed his studies at Widener's Law School, works as an attorney in Delaware. He describes himself as "an exercise freak" and a big sports fan (especially the Eagles and the Phillies). Chris also enjoys running and an occasional game of poker.

Kathleen teaches environmental science at the Avon Grove Charter School (grades 3-8). A self-described "tree hugger", Kathleen is active in securing natural spaces, working with several local organizations: Pennsylvania Land Trust, Tree Tenders, and the Pennsylvania Association for Environmental Education (PAEE). When she has a few minutes to spare, she may be found reading; she recommends Jitterbug Perfume, by her favorite author, Tom Robbins.

The center of action at the Logullo household is daughter Molly, a joyful 7 year old, who enjoys horseback riding and dancing (jazz, tap and ballet). She also likes math and reading at Linden Hill Elementary; her favorite book is The Giving Tree. Her favorite movies are Tangled, Wizard of Oz, and Megamind. Molly also enjoyed being part of the Christmas Pageant when she arrived. She likes the Middlers' Group - especially the crafts and "being able to learn things about God and to be kind to others".

Welcome home to Molly & Christopher!
Welcome back, Kathleen!

WE WELCOME...
...ELIZABETH (LIZ) PORTER!

The joys of Elizabeth Porter's life are easy to identify: kids and animals! With two cats of her own (Stormy and a new yet-to-be named feline), you may find Liz at home in Arden reading one of her favorite books – of cat stories. Or she might be at a neighbor's house – pet sitting. Liz also enjoys listening to music and creating wonderful projects with counted cross stitch.

She currently works as a substitute teacher at the Education Enrichment Center located at the Unitarian Church here in Wilmington. Prior to that, Liz taught at Saint David's Day School, and at the Wilmington Montessori School (for eleven years). She enjoys babysitting and has served as a Nanny for several area families. Liz was the Nanny for one family for eleven years.

Born and raised in beautiful Bermuda, Liz moved to Delaware with her family in the late 70's. She still has family members living in Bermuda, and misses the wonderfully clean smell that comes with the rain falling on the white limestone roofs there. She also has fond memories of walking on Bermuda's pink sandy beaches.

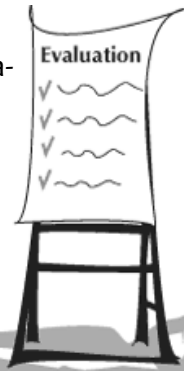

Her work at the Day School led Liz to begin worshipping at Saint David's Church. An early riser, she likes coming to the 8 am service. She wanted to make regular worship part of her life, and has found the parishioners and the service make Saint David's the place she wants to be. Liz now serves here as part of the Pastoral Care Team. And Saint David members recently joined Liz in celebrating as she was confirmed by Bishop Wayne Wright here.

Congratulations, Liz!
 We're glad you're here!

CAREER TESTING & EVALUATION

Chaplain Diane Butcher, a parishioner and graduate of Neumann, is offering to test and evaluate for free, any of St. David's high school age youth in regard to career personality and vocational choice. Using standardized tests, interviews and values inventory, Diane will test, evaluate and then meet with student and parents in regard to evaluation findings. All her work will be overseen by a professionally licensed career counselor and all results will be kept confidential and given to parents at the evaluation. Diane is offering to do this evaluation in order to meet the State of Delaware licensing requirements in regard to hours practiced and supervised in the field. Diane has already graduated from Neumann University and passed her national boards as a NCCB certified counselor. Anyone wishing to have their child evaluated may contact Diane at 302-475-6562 or email her at chaplain1@verizon.net.

EASTER EGG HUNT

There will be an Easter Egg Hunt for all little ones following the 10:15 service on Easter Day. Children should gather in the Parish Hall for egg hunting instructions! Good luck!

STEWARDSHIP AS MISSION

“Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart” ~BCP, p. 365

There's a risk that the well-known words of the post-communion prayer be said so frequently that they lose their meaning. Comforting by their familiarity, they provide the reassurance of a well-trod path and blend seamlessly into the fabric of the worship service. In fact, they are a clear call to specific action. They are a self-proclaimed summons to stewardship and mission in this world, to taking care of our own and helping others. Are we listening to what we say and considering where we might act?

CONCERNING THE USE OF INCENSE

We will be employing incense to deepen our worship on Easter Sunday at the 10:15 am service.

The use of incense in Christian worship finds its inspiration in many places. In the Bible, incense and worship often go together. For example, Isaiah and St. John describe heavenly worship with angels where the house was filled with the smoke of incense (Is 6.4; Rev. 8.3-4).

The Bible also notes that incense reminds us of the prayers of the saints going up to God (Ps 141, Rev 8). But the primary biblical reason is to remind us of the life, death and glorious resurrection of our Savior.

theme that is noted in Ephesians “he gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God (5.2). Therefore, incense used today reminds us of these biblical images of Christ.

Christian Churches have often used incense especially at those points in worship where worshippers needed to be reminded of Jesus’ very real presence. That is why the elements and altar are censured at the offertory. It honors God by reminding us that God is in our midst.

A final reason for using incense is beauty – which engages the whole person. For not just the mind and heart are consecrated to God's Service, but also the hands, eyes, feet, taste buds, and even the nose! So, just as the beauty of the vestments and flowers capture the eyes and the sounds of the music and song delight the ear, the sweet smell of incense is intended to aid in grasping the greatness of the feast.

When Jesus was a child, the Magi brought him Frankincense, to show honor. Moreover, when Jesus died, his body was prepared with myrrh before being placed in the tomb. When sacrifices were made in the Old Testament, incense was used. The church has often described Jesus’ death as a sacrifice – a
